

How is the Sample Collected Using ESwab™?

At the point of care, the ESwab™ cap is unscrewed and removed. After using the swab to collect the sample, the swab is inserted to the bottom of the ESwab™ tube and the swab shaft is broken at the marked, molded breakpoint. The cap is screwed back onto the tube. The sample is labeled and sent to the lab.

