

- If absolute lymphocyte count <300cells/ $\mu$ L, proceed to sequencing in lieu of flow cytometry testing.
- Cytobrushes are preferred method of sample collection in patients with white blood cell counts <2000 cells/ $\mu$ L.
- Genetic testing may be ordered sequentially or in tandem, depending on clinical urgency.

For more information, please visit our website cincinnatichildrens.org/dchi or call the Diagnostic Center for Heritable Immunodeficiencies at 513-636-4474.